

*From the Office of the Mayor
Ashland, Alabama*
PROCLAMATION

In honor of the millions of public employees at the federal, state, county and city levels

WHEREAS, Americans are served every single day by public servants at the federal, state, county and city levels. These unsung heroes do the work that keeps our nation working; and

WHEREAS, Public employees take not only jobs, but oaths; and

WHEREAS, Many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, health care professionals and others, risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States and around the world; and

WHEREAS, Public servants include teachers, doctors and scientists . . . train conductors and astronauts . . . nurses and safety inspectors . . . laborers, computer technicians and social workers . . . and countless other occupations. Day in and day out they provide the diverse services demanded by the American people of their government with efficiency and integrity; and

WHEREAS, Without these public servants at every level, continuity would be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials.

THEREFORE, I, the Mayor Pro-Tem of the City of Ashland, Alabama, do hereby announce and proclaim to all citizens that May 4-10, 2014 is in the City of Ashland. All citizens are encouraged to recognize the accomplishments and contributions of government employees at all levels - federal, state, county and city.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have set my hand hereto and caused the seal of the City of Ashland, Alabama to be affixed this the 5th day of May 2014.
